SUBJECT

Further update regarding the upcoming upgrade to the ESR Liferay platform and to inform users of move of deployment from Release 69 to Release 69.2.

DETAIL

Following the issue of UN3759, users are reminded that the ESR platform will be upgraded to Liferay DXP 2026.Q1 to improve system stability, performance, and ensure continued vendor support.

Following the upgrade, new functionality will be available:

- The web content editor will be upgraded
- Auto-save functionality when creating or editing web content
- Feature to allow collaborations between administrators and editors on Publications.

Data cut-off for upgrade

The data cut-off date has moved from 16 June 2026 to 14 July 2026 at 18:00 as part of the system upgrade.

- Any changes made after this time will not be restored as part of the upgrade.
- Any work completed after the cut-off will need to be re-entered after Release 69.2 has been applied.
- System availability will be communicated in the related downtime User Notice.
