Design Assumptions

The following design assumptions have been made and can be applied to all analyses and dashboards:

1. All analyses have an export button to enable the user to export to their format of choice.
2. All analyses have an 'Add to Briefing Book' button enabled to allow the user to group national analyses together into a board-report type document.
3. All dashboards are designed on a screen resolution of 1024 x 768 pixels to prevent horizontal scroll bars being displayed (except where wide tables of data are required).

Examples

Where applicable, the examples included in this document contain fictional data only. The names and other personal details are fictional although look realistic enough to provide a useful example.

This dashboard is designed to show the number of days between vacancy start date, and then between each subsequent change in applicant status. It can be used to find where any extended time periods are occurring. This dashboard works best if the organisation is using ESR for all applicant status changes, or downloading all applicants from a 3rd party website (such as NHS Jobs). Select a grouping option below to view the average number of days to reach each status, then click an applicant number in the detail view to see the detail about their application.
